Submitted to Secty.

The paper was among the other letters received during the X mas holidays. The Joint Register Clerk did not attend to it promptly and effectively. Please see last para of his explanation. In my humble opinion, the delay this time

Submitted,

Regarding the cause of delay in the receipt in the Excise Branch, (which I am asked to explain) of the docket herewith, I beg to submit my statement as follows:—

1. The time intervening between the Honble Head Sheristadar's order of its submission to Secretary and its receipt in the Excise Branch on 22/12/98 and 2/1/99 respectively, which is the delay caused, may, for the present purpose, be divided into three parts thus:—

I A delay of 4 days between 22/12/98 and 25/12/98, during which I had no turn amidst the X mas holidays.

II A delay of 2 days viz, on the 26th & 27th Ultimo added to 4 days' delay which were my turn days as per "Turn list".

III A delay of 5 more days between 28/12/98 and 2/1/99 during which I had no turn and yet I attended the office.

2. I, for my own part, am to submit my explanation as to the cause why the Excise Branch did not send the docket in question on any of my turn days.

3. The work allotted to me is chiefly (a) receiving new letters checking their enclosures, putting fly dockets to such as need, registering them and sending for delivery and acknowledgment such of them as are of branches other than that of Revenue proper, having entered them in the issue book kept for the purpose; and

(b) marking "In letters" in the Branch Registers as I receive them from the Bearish.

4. The number of papers of miscellaneous sorts which were at various stages and which had accumulated during X mas, was very large, and I, like other clerks that had turns on the 26th and 27th December last, attended to a few of the urgent papers besides to my own usual work. Unfortunately for me I did not come across the docket in question that day, nor does
